natural leather seat

DETAILS

The backless edition of our classic counter stool is perfect for kitchens that call for a low-profile presence while still making a stylish statement. This sleek piece is ideal for adding extra seating at the end of an island without overcrowding the space, seamlessly complementing our Stool #2.

Crafted from sustainable white oak, the stool features a beautiful neutral finish that enhances the wood's natural grain. The seat is upholstered in full-grain, vegetable-tanned leather, chosen for its rich texture and minimal environmental impact. An anti-UV topcoat ensures lasting protection against discoloration and stains, preserving the stool's look over time.
